Krishi Vigyan Kendras (KVKs), established under the Ministry of Agriculture & Farmers Welfare, Government of India, serve as a vital institutional mechanism for the transfer of agricultural technologies to farmers. They play a significant role in capacity building for agri-entrepreneurship and in the validation and dissemination of technologies developed by agricultural research institutions across India. The Krishi Vigyan Kendra (KVK) system operates under the umbrella of the Indian Council of Agricultural Research and is supported through a centrally sponsored, ICAR-funded scheme for agricultural extension.

The employees of Krishi Vigyan Kendras, function as frontline extension and technology transfer agents at the district level in India. They work in close coordination with local communities and development departments to ensure that the latest agricultural knowledge and innovations effectively reach the grassroots level.

In pursuance of the mandate entrusted to Sher-i-Kashmir University of Agricultural Sciences & Technology of Kashmir, under the scheme, online applications through university website: www.skuastkashmir.ac.in are invited from young, bright, motivated, field oriented individuals, committed to working closely with farming communities, who are domiciles of the Union Territory of Jammu & Kashmir for filling up various vacant positions of Subject Matter Specialists (SMS) through direct recruitment in different Krishi Vigyan Kendras (KVKs) under SKUAST-K.

Details of the vacancies are given hereunder;
